

OFFICE OF
The Woman's Journal,

No. 3 TREMONT PLACE.

Boston, Dec. 2 1876

Dear Mr. Garrison

I enclose to you a memorial which will explain itself.

Will you write me Confidentially, what you think of the propriety of signing it?

It seems to me, that to the Queen, and to all others, except those who are actively engaged for the repeal of the "Acts," such a memorial will be regarded as an importunement.

Miss Cheney thinks so, and so does Kate Gannett Wells.

You know we are to send our address, to give moral support to our colonies over there. But this memorial ~~also~~ can be signed also, if it is the proper thing to do: if in the great whole, it will help more than it will hinder.

If you have time please say what you think about it?

We ought to have informed you officially, that you were unanimously nominated, & elected president of the American Woman Suffrage Association for the next year - but I suppose that you know it, and I trust you may be able to attend our next meeting -

Yours very truly
Lucy Stone
